Docket No. S-20600A-08-0340

Respondent

MARK W. BOSWORTH

JOINDER IN LISA BOSWORTH'S

And MICHAEL J. AND PEGGY L. SARGENTS

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Arizona Corporation Commission
DOCKETED

JUL 29 2011

DOCKETED BY

[Signature]

Respondent Mark Bosworth respectfully joins in the motion for continuance filed by Lisa Bosworth and the Joinder filed by the Sargents. The motion is clear, factual and the requested relief fully warranted. Respondent Mark Bosworth believes this is another attempt by the Division to circumvent the prior order for a joint hearing as ruled on by the Honorable ALJ Mark Stern. The Division is still clearly attempting to separate the respondents into separate hearings in violation of the courts prior rulings. The ruling was clear for these participants to be heard together. Lisa Bosworth is part of this hearing and has EVERY legal right to continue to be.

1 After over 1,100 days at the last possible moment, the division files this motion. This appears to
2 be a blatant abuse and manipulation of the system to alter the courts previous ruling.

3
4 Additionally Respondent discloses that Division is not properly sending mail with a full
5 address (see attachment #1) which may be interfering with proper receipt of important records
6 and documents. Respondent has requested to be copied via email to speed the flow of 7 information, critical on short timelines.

8
9 Respondent Mark Bosworth has been the only party representing Three Gringos in any
10 fashion in the hearings. The Commission has been negotiating secretly with only one of the three
11 parties of Three Gringos llc – the Sargents- on demands it is seeking for restitution offsets worth
12 millions of dollars. The Sargents and their counsel have been receiving critical information that
13 affects millions of dollars of potential and realistic offsets while the Commission intentionally
14 keeps The Bosworth's in the dark on the entire matter. How can I fix issues we are unaware of 15 worth millions of dollars? The 14th Amendment clearly allows equal treatment under the law and 16 this violates my constitutional rights under the 14th Amendment.

17
18 Respondent is not aware of Divisions Motion to Compel mentioned in the 20th order.

19
20 There are still open procedural issues concerning the Division's unresolved objections to 21 the Bosworth's List of Witnesses and exhibits. At this point, I am prepared to use all my 22 exhibits, witnesses and documents and have NOT been advised in any other fashion by this
23 court. In this late hour, any changes would be devastating to my rights to a fair defense. In light
24 of all these issues, it is not sensible or in good faith to proceed with the hearing now. The 25 burdens of these new problems rest solely on the Division and the Respondents should not be 26 punished for the Divisions actions.
